

Santa's Reindeer

One wintery evening Santa's reindeer,
were resting in their comfy stable.
Rudolph and the others,
were eating dinner at their table.

Santa needed them to be strong,
so they finished all their food.
Dancer turned on Christmas music,
because he was in a dancing mood.

Blitzen and Dasher enjoyed galloping,
so they went for a friendly jog.
Prancer surprised them from a bush,
when he jumped out like a frog.

Comet and Donner,
with snowballs played catch.
They used their large antlers,
when it was time for a match.

Cupid and Vixen stayed behind,
and Christmas stories they shared.
They drew festive pictures,
and yummy cookies prepared.

Rudolph was super happy,
that all his friends were having fun.
He knew Santa would need them all,
when the moon replaced the sun.